

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

United Citizens Foundation Providing Counseling Services at No Out of Pocket Cost During Global Coronavirus Pandemic

Services are available via Telehealth or at North Las Vegas or Southwest Las Vegas Locations

LAS VEGAS – March 16, 2020 – United Citizens Foundation (UCF), a nonprofit 501(c) 3 specializing in healthy emotional and behavioral skills for children and their families with onsite mental and behavioral Wellness Centers in the community is offering therapy sessions at no out of pocket cost during this global Coronavirus pandemic to Nevadans. The services are available through Telehealth or at the nonprofit’s two community locations: 4485 South Buffalo Dr., Las Vegas, NV 89147 and 2048 N. Las Vegas Blvd., North Las Vegas, NV 89030. Please call the hotline at (702) 888-6300 for scheduling.

“This is a trying time for our community, country and the world and now more than ever we need to support each other,” said Ash Mirchandani, President of UCF. “We want the public to know that we are here for you and any anxiety or stresses you may be feeling amid this uncertainty.”

About United Citizens Foundation

United Citizens Foundation (UCF) is a nonprofit organization dedicated to promoting healthy social, emotional, and behavioral skills for children, adolescents, adults and families. UCF improves the quality of life of individuals by compassionately serving their mental health, substance use, and community support needs. UCF services are available regardless of economic status. The foundation currently has five school-based clinics (two elementary schools, one middle school and two high schools) and two community clinics in North Las Vegas and Southwest Las Vegas. For more information visit ucfnv.org or follow @UCFNV on Instagram/Twitter.

###

Media Contact:
Hilary Friedman
hilary@ucfnv.org
702-275-1573